LATONIA FAVORITES FAIL.

ONLY ONE REACHES WINNING LINE FIRST AND THE BOOKMAKERS FLOURISH.

Hanbridge Outstays Zienap and Sets a New Track Record—Aspirin Defeats Home Run—Lens in Front.

Cincinnati, O., October 27.—Spirited racing and close finishes were the order at Latonia this afternoon. The attendance was large. Hanbridge, which won in his previous start in the commonest kind of a canter, was neglected in today's feature race and upset unwise calculations by scoring decisively and reducing the former track record for a mile and seventy yards. Only four, Lady Martha, Zienap, Sally Preston and Hanbridge, started in the race, the first pair being strongly fancied choices, with Sally Preston developing support near post time. Hanbridge was neglected in the market and some of the layers took big liberties with him by quoting a long show price. He set a fast pace from the start and had Sally Preston, his nearest follower, in trouble before going three-quarters. On the stretch turn Zienap moved up and made a game challenge, but Hanbridge had sufficient in reserve to hold her safe to the end. Lady Martha, the favorite, was never a serious contender and Sally Preston had things her own way for third place.

Five favorites were again downed and the fourteen layers in line reaped a big harvest. A mild killing was attempted in the second race with Home Run, an awkward-gaited colt from the Fizer stable. It was upset by Aspirin, which showed suddenly improved form over his last previous race. Another upset was furnished by Sorrel Top, when he galloped Lady Anne, an odds-on favorite, into defeat before going a half and came away to win as his rider pleased.

Another odds-on choice failing to finish in the money was Carew in the closing race. Dunvegan raced with Carew for three-quarters and forced the latter to quit, but this early effort told on him in the stretch and Arrow Swift managed to head him near the finish. Redgauntlet, which landed third, was probably best in the race, but Garner gave him a timid ride and met with frequent interference.

The speedy Marbles, joint favorite with Lens, set out to spreadeagle her opponents in the fifth race and succeeded for a half in maintaining an advantage that made her winning seem almost a certainty, but in the last furlong she curled up badly and allowed the trailing Lens to dash by and win.

Desperado and Be Brief furnished the closest finish of the afternoon by landing noses apart, with Mique O'Brien overtaking the pair and only a neck in the rear. Killington, a newcomer in these parts, was well supported, but was not good enough.

Secretary John B. Dillon received a summons this afternoon to appear before the grand jury. He will give the information that bookmakers are in line here, on which the basis for an indictment will be founded.

The attorneys for the State Racing Commission filed their answer yesterday to the Latonia Jockey Club's petition for a review of their action in revoking the club's license. The hearing is set for Saturday before Judge Harbeson in the Circuit Court.

The uncertainty in regard to the opening of New Orleans racing next winter is again growing and many of the horsemen are in a quandary about determining their plans. It was expected that S. F. Heaslip would arrive today for a final consultation with Messrs. Rhinock, Corrigan, Cella and Respess, but he failed to put in an appearance. Rhinock and Corrigan were on hand, but had nothing to add to the present outlook. Mr. Heaslip will probably arrive later in the week and it is expected that he will make a definite announcement of the plans for the proposed race meeting.

J. B. Respess shipped Miss Lida this afternoon to Louisville, where she will be turned over to Miller Henderson for a campaign on the California tracks next winter.

Jockey McGee's father, concerned deeply about damaging rumors about the rider, had a long interview with Judge Price this afternoon which may culminate in an improved showing on the part of the jockey.

Michael Angelo narrowly escaped serious injury while being worked last night. His exercise boy failed to see the harrows on the track and the colt jumped into one of them, but got out again without coming in contact with the sharp teeth.

Hanbridge was started today in bar plates, which might have accounted for his good showing.

DORANTE AND MATES AT OAKLAND.

San Francisco, Cal., October 27.—F. A. Forsythe arrived from New York today with seventeen yearlings, mostly by Oddfellow, and the following older horses: Dorante, Berry Maid, High Private, Bon Homme, Fordello, Halloween, Jeanne d'Arc, Kenmore, Moorish King, Oesa, Twilight Queen, Warden and Fanatic. J. Lee, stable jockey, will come here next week from New Orleans, where he is visiting relatives. Jockeys Shreve and P. Kelly, and apprentices Fox, Fitzpatrick and Hagan came with the horses.

G. H. Keene has returned from Kentucky, having made arrangements for the shipment of Raconteur and a Gold Heels yearling to the coast with T. H. Stevens or I. H. Miller. The former is coming to Santa Anita and Miller will race here. J. O. Keene will return to America from Japan with jockey Scoville about December 1.

H. G. Bedwell's mare Luretta died today from pneumonia.

Frank Weir's California string will include Jim Gaffney, Roseben, Milford, Cressina, Fancy, Strike Out, Sir Lynnewood, Rockstone, The Vicar and two yearlings.

Charlie Ellison will arrive here next Tuesday.

Jockeys Rettig and Borel have arrived from the northwest. The former will ride for William Fisher and Borel probably for the Ormondale Stable.

S. C. Hildreth made 175 nominations to the California Jockey Club's stakes.

The principal work-outs today were: Dandelion, a mile in 1:45; Nadzu, a mile in 1:44; Fitz Herbert, a mile in 1:46, and Sewell, six furlongs in 1:16.

PIMLICO MEETING STILL DRAWING HEAVILY.

Nicol Makes His Debut and Rides Edgely and Gridiron to Victory in Succession.

Baltimore, Md., October 27.—The Maryland Jockey Club offered its patrons an excellent card this afternoon and prospects of good racing drew out a large gathering. The program was made up of seven races, the features of which were the Green Spring Valley Steeplechase and the Country Club of Pimlico Stakes. Both of these events furnished stirring contests.

Besom, an added starter in the Country Club Stakes, showed a splendid performance. The conditions of the race stipulated that owners not stating the selling price through the entry box on Monday would cause their entry to be carded to be sold at the top price, $2,500. Besom was forced to shoulder 125 pounds, which meant that he was giving away all the way from seventeen to twenty-two pounds to everything in the race. Despite this handicap the colt made good in gallant fashion. The early pace in the race was very fast, with Besom a game contender. For five furlongs he hung to the speedy Sal Volatile, and when the latter tired in the stretch Besom drew away and in a driving finish beat Giles out by a small margin. Besom and Sal Volatile both tired badly at the end, the last quarter being run in little better than a two-minute clip.

Three of the beaten choices, Stargowan, Live Wire and Botanist, all of which were at odds-on, were ridden by McCarthy. Jockey Dave Nicol had his first mount at the meeting in the opening race and made good by riding Edgely home an easy winner. He came right back in the second race and won with Gridiron. Nicol had been training on the road since his arrival here and is apparently in better condition than before this year.

Grandpa ran in the name and interests of Silas Veitch. Veitch purchased the old horse from William C. Hayes yesterday. Hayes contemplates a trip abroad. He has arranged to go to France with George Saportas. He and Saportas will enter into a sort of partnership and race a few steeplechase horses on the other side. Hayes may also do some of his own riding in France, as it is quite the thing over there for gentlemen jockeys to ride their own horses.

Evans Tucker, the skillful young Philadelphia amateur, whose riding this season has earned him considerable praise, will not be seen in the saddle in the gentlemen's races at Pimlico this fall. Young Master Tucker met with an accident at Narberth on Saturday last when President Monroe bolted into the fence with him and broke two of the small bones in his left foot.

Baby Willie has been transferred back to Mrs. G. J. Engelking by David Dunlop, whose lease on the mare has expired. Baby Willie won a number of races while racing in the Dunlop colors at the different fairs throughout Virginia.

Student King and Pontotoc, the two green jumpers which Billy Garth has shown at Pimlico, were developed and schooled by his son, a lad of eighteen. Young Garth is quite a horseman. He has made desirable fencers out of several horses which were condemned by some of the cross-country experts.

Lee Meyer got in from New York this morning. He will remain until the close of the meeting. J. W. Colt was another new arrival.

Rio Grande bled in his race, which accounted for McCabe pulling him up in the stretch.

Gridiron's victory this afternoon was his first in the colors of David Dunlop, his new owner.

Steeplechase jockey P. Hagan came down from Toronto to ride Bilberry in today's race. This horse, which has shown big improvement in form, is being trained by the veteran, Bob Lendrum, who was a prominent rider during the Guttenberg days.

Jockeys J. Upton and P. Coane will leave for San Francisco Saturday, where they will ride for F. E. Gardner during the winter.

The stable of W. V. Conran arrived from Hamilton this morning. The horses shipped in good condition. They will leave for Los Angeles at the conclusion of the Pimlico meeting.

Pins and Needles has been taken off the schooling list by starter Dade.

Mortimer Mahoney, John G. Cavanagh's assistant, is arranging for a special which will leave here at the conclusion of racing Monday next for New York. Already some 300 applications for tickets have been made by the voters who are making the trip to New York to cast a ballot against Hughes. This special will leave Jersey City at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and will arrive in Baltimore in time for the first race.

COMPLETE WINNINGS OF OUR CHIEF STABLE.

James R. Keene's great stable will play no further part in the racing of 1908. Everything considered, his horses have gone into winter quarters with a record of magnificent proportions. It is not hard to perceive that had Colin and Celt remained sound the earnings of the stable would have closely approximated its record breaking total of last year. Even as it is its total for 1908 is one that is seldom approached and a marvel to less fortunate owners. Last year the strength of the stable in two-year-olds was in colts, this year in fillies, Maskette, Suffragette and Melisande being a wondrous trio. Ballot was the stable's chief money gainer, but Maskette was not far behind him in that regard and Colin, Celt, Helmet and Melisande gathered munificent returns with their nimble feet. The record of every horse that started in the stable's colors and the results of their speed are shown in the following final statement of the Keene record of 1908:

WINNERS OF THE GREAT ENGLISH STAKES.

Flat racing in England begins at Lincoln in March, with the Lincolnshire Handicap as its one great and all engrossing feature. It terminates at Manchester in November, with the Manchester November Handicap rivalling the Lincolnshire in interest. Between the two many highly important stakes are run that command general attention in England. In the case of some meager summaries are cabled, but many others are never noticed in the Associated Press service. The following table gives the names of the great races of this year to date, the winners, their riders and the post prices of each:

OPENING DAY AT JAMAICA.

NO INTERFERENCE WITH BETTING AT THE TRACK, BUT PATRONAGE IS LIGHT.

Fountainblue Wins the Feature Race, but Pulls Up Lame—Strike Out in Front—Sententious Placed in Two Races.

New York, October 27.—Fountainblue won the all-aged handicap, the feature of the card at Jamaica today, from Cressina, Question Mark, Notasulga, Queen Marguerite and Arondack, after one of the most exciting and uncertain stretch drives witnessed this season. Excepting Arondack, which was second choice and seemed unable to raise a respectable gallop in the early running, the field covered the entire journey in close order, with Cressina showing the way to the last couple of strides where Brady's $25,000 purchase flashed past the leader in a swift final sprint. As in all his previous losing races this season, Fountainblue was well backed and his backers, as well as the general public, were surprised to see him win, particularly after the costly defeat of the stable's supposed good thing, Otogo, in the previous race. Both horses had worked exceedingly well for their respective races this afternoon and "Diamond Jim" Brady's small army of pensioners present were in a state of pleasureable anticipation before the downfall of the latter. Had Otogo succeeded and the winnings been parlayed on Fountainblue, in accordance with plans mapped out during the forenoon, the small remnant of layers now operating in New York would have been put out of business.

Fountainblue pulled up very lame and will probably not be seen here again this season. He underwent a thorough inspection in the paddock subsequently, F. D. Weir, among others, looking him over with a view of acquiring such a serviceable horse for California racing. Mr. Weir said during the afternoon that he would ship to the coast the morning following election day. "The stalls already engaged at Oakland," he added, "will shelter a number of good horses next winter, including Roseben, Strike Out, Cressina and last, but not least, Jim Gaffney. The latter has been in retirement for over a year but is going sound now and we expect him to show to advantage in the stakes he is extensively engaged in out there." Messrs. Weir and Johnson made thirty or forty nominations to the New California Jockey Club's magnificent list of stakes. The combined voting strength of this stable in the coming election is seventeen. They remain over until after election in order to deposit their ballots for Chanler for governor.

There are many other racing establishments, J. A. Bennet's, Andy Blakeley's and others, which have delayed their departure until after election in order to give their votes for Chanler.

Local horsemen, including intending shippers to New Orleans, are very much discouraged over the prospects for racing with betting there, and it is expected that the coming exodus of owners to California will be materially augmented by men like J. H. McCormick, Albert Simons, F. E. Gardner, R. T. Wilson, Jr., T. F. Healey, R. A. Smith, E. R. Bradley, the Oneck Stable, W. B. Karrick, Archie Zimmer, B. C. Murray, R. H. McC. Potter, F. B. Lemaire, the Newcastle Stable, J. H. McLaughlin, C. R. Fleischmann, P. S. P. Randolph and many others who had declared their intentions to campaign their strings at the proposed Crescent City meeting.

Strike Out, the amazingly fast Durvea cast-off, dashed out into such a long lead over his seven opponents in the opening race, at five furlongs, that the spectators withdrew their gaze after the first quarter and centered their attention on the coming struggle for second and third places between the others. It seemed incredible that Strike Out would ever be seriously menaced at any stage of the journey after the rocket-like fashion in which he left the others, but such was actually the case when nearing the finish, where both Erbet and Sententious were fast overhauling him. The last-named filly was required to appear under the colors a second time during the afternoon. It was in the last race that she more than duplicated her feat in the earlier race by finishing second.

It was Creevy vs. Notter in the second race, and the obscure apprentice rider won out on Sanguine. Animus' defeat spelled heavy financial disaster for the plunging contingent.

A. Simons won out Merry Gift, his recent Belmont purchase at the first asking, but she scored a fluke win over May River, which should have come home alone.

The race for non-winners in 1908 produced a contest equally as exciting as the more pretentious handicap. Ardri, Raquel and Norbitt finished noses apart after a rattling battle through the last sixteenth of the stretch. Waponoca divided public favoritism in the last race with Uncle Jim. They figured as the two end horses, the former at the front end and the latter at the rear end at the finish.

The wet weather of the past two days had drenched the track, the going being sloppy and yet susceptible of fast galloping. The intermittent showers forced the three or four hundred race-goers to seek shelter in the grandstand or on the stone walk beneath. Betting on the races was indulged in freely and without any interference. The sleuths, plain clothes men and uniformed police were conspicuous by their absence. They were not there to rough house and embarrass inoffensive race track patrons as was the case at the recent two meetings of the Empire City Association.

The blighting effect of the summer's anti-racing crusade was painfully apparent at Jamaica today, where anybody and everybody could bet and go as far as he liked. The fact is the former great metropolitan racing public has been scared away and even the knowledge that it could enjoy the grandest of all sports in its own way as of old, failed to tempt any but a very few of the faithful to journey to Jamaica today.

District Attorney Darrin came late and left early. While there he was as indifferent to what was going on in a betting way as the starter is supposed to be.

George Rose and his clerks, fifteen in all, are delaying their departure for California until after election day in order to vote for Chanler.

It is said that the full yearling brother to Maskette will head the formidable band of juveniles belonging to James R. Keene intended for racing in England next season.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The fourth race last Saturday at Dallas, Tex., was the Futurity, a stake race for Texas-bred two-year-olds, to which the Fair Association added $1,000, and was worth $2,300 to the winner, which proved to be F. T. Wood's Sensible. The Dallas Brewing Association also gave a silver cup to the winner.

There is a full-brother to Maskette in the Keene barn at Sheepshead Bay, which, it is said, is the fastest yearling quartered at that track. This brother of Maskette is a bay colt of good size and only recently worked three-eighths of a mile in thirty-five and one-half seconds over the yearling trial track.

Enoch Wishard is a busy man with A. B. Spreckels' big string. All of the yearlings in Wishard's stable came from Napa Stock Farm high in flesh, and getting them into condition for racing entails a greater amount of work than would be required had the youngsters been nurtured with less care. There are several promising lookers in the band.

J. E. Madden from all accounts is arranging to take over the old Joyner stable at Sheepshead Bay. This is one of the largest stables at the track, having thirty stalls, and being all inclosed and convenient is one of the most desirable places at the Bay. Madden intends to winter a considerable string of his horses there, instead of sending them to his place in Kentucky.

FIRST DAY OF M'GRATHIANA SALE.

Cesarion Brings Top Price and Goes to British Columbia—Results Better Than Expected.

Lexington, Ky., October 27.—The dispersal sale of Colonel Milton Young's McGrathiana Stud of thoroughbred horses began under a mammoth round-top tent erected near the mansion on the famous old breeding farm at one o'clock this afternoon and when the selling for the first day was concluded at four o'clock, seven stallions, fifty-two mares and thirty-eight weanlings had passed under auctioneer William Easton's hammer for an aggregate of $20,700, an average for the ninety-seven head of $213.50. The seven stallions brought $5,975, average, $853.50; the fifty-two mares $10,025, average, $193, and the thirty-eight weanlings $4,700, average, $134. This result is surprisingly good, since one-fifth of the number to be sold have realized more than half of what Colonel Young had estimated the entire collection would bring. The attendance numbered more than 1,000 persons, representing nearly every section of the United States and the Dominion of Canada, and there are some here from Germany, France, England and Mexico, though they were not numbered among the buyers of today. Colonel Young had prepared barbecued meats, burgoo and punch in abundance and before the sale opened the visitors were feasted. There were many ladies present and they were the guests of Mrs. Young and her daughters at a spread of sandwiches, salads and tea.

Explaining that it would not be necessary for purchasers to remove their horses at once, since Colonel Young would keep them for one week free of cost, Mr. Easton called for the first horse. Cesarion was led in. Catesby Wooford and Colonel E. F. Clay started him at $500, R. H. Anderson raised it to $1,000; Ed A. Tipton, representing George A. Kurvey of Hudson, Canada, raised it to $1,500; Anderson went to $2,000. Here Irving H. Wheatcroft, representing the St. James Stable, from St. James Island, near Vancouver, British Columbia, cut in and by hundreds they went to $3,000, at which figure he was knocked down to Mr. Wheatcroft. Yorkshire Lad also went to the St. James Stable for $1,500, the second highest price of the day. In addition to the two stallions, Mr. Wheatcroft bought six mares and fourteen weanlings, paying $9,445 for twenty-two head. Among the mares was Design, dam of Two Bills, for which he paid $1,000, the third highest price of the sale. Woolsthorpe was knocked down to Mr. Tipton for Mr. Kurvey for $400. George J. Long of Louisville got Sempronius for $525, after outbidding Barney Schreiber and John S. Barbee. Mr. Schreiber, however, got Sorcerer and Lackford, the former for $100 and the latter for $250. Cameron was knocked down to James Surget of Natchez, Miss., for $200. William Dockery of Dockery, Miss., bought nineteen head of the cheaper mares and weanlings and will use them to produce mules. The horses bringing $500 or more were:

Cesarion, b. h. 16, by Faustus—Cleopatra; St. James Stable	$3,000
Sempronius, b. h. 17, by Wisdom—Hamptonia; G. J. Long	525
Yorkshire Lad, blk. h. 6, by Dinna Forget—Rose Marjorie; St. James Stable	1,500

CRACK ENGLISH TWO-YEAR-OLD OF 1908.

Bayardo's Constantly Successful Career—List of His Triumphs and His Pedigree.

Bayardo is emphatically the two-year-old of the year in England. A bay colt, by Bay Ronald—Galicia, and the property of Mr. Fairie, he has had a career of uninterrupted success and is deemed quite unbeatable in his present form, although some critics view his Derby chance next year with suspicion, Augur, of Sporting Life, saying after the colt won the Middle Park Plate: "He is a marvelously fine two-year-old, not to look at, but as a racer. Though he does not walk well, he is a rare mover in his quick paces. I cannot, however, go so far as those who declare that he is sure to win the Derby. It remains to be seen whether he will retain as a three-year-old the supremacy he enjoys at present. I have my doubts."

Bayardo made his debut in the New Stakes at Ascot June 18, and won with Perdiccas second, Perola third and ten more unplaced. His next start was for the richest stake for two-year-olds of the English turf, the National Breeders' Produce Stakes, at Sandown Park July 18. With 128 pounds in the saddle he won easily from Glasgerion, Vivid and eleven other youngsters. Carrying 134 pounds he next won the Richmond Stakes at Goodwood, with Vivid second, Oakmere third and one other unplaced. September 29, at the Newmarket First October Meeting, he won the Buckenham Stakes, only Bonnie Lassie and Vivario opposing him. He carried 126 pounds and at the same meeting, October 2, and with the same weight up, won the Rous Memorial Stakes, having Auceps as his solitary opponent. At the Newmarket Second October Meeting he added the Middle Park Plate to his spoils. This was formerly the most valuable event for two-year-olds of the English turf and was called the "Two-Year-Old Derby." In this he carried 129 pounds and was opposed by Vivid, Blankney II. and Shikaree, the small field testifying to his well recognized supremacy. His record and his pedigree are:

Date.	Race Track.	Won.
June 18	New Stakes, Ascot	$ 9,087.50
July 18	National Breeders', Sandown	21,785.00
July 28	Richmond Stakes, Goodwood	3,260.00

CAREER OF A GOOD SON OF DICK WELLES.

The death of Dick Roller, the son of the famous Dick Welles, which occurred Monday morning at Latonia as the result of lung fever contracted while being shipped from New York, robbed J. B. Respess of a promising colt which gave every indication of being able to uphold the renown of his speedy sire. Dick Roller made his debut in the turf world at Latonia June 30, when he ran third in the Cincinnati Trophy after suffering from interference throughout the race. Horsemen who witnessed his initial appearance freely predicted a brilliant future for the colt. His next start was made at Fort Erie, where he won in hollow fashion from a field of twelve fairly good two-year-olds. Third place was the best he could do when next out. Then he was shipped to Empire City, where he ran second to Footpad in the Wakefield Stakes. His next effort was his greatest performance, the winning of the Knickerbocker Handicap, in which he decisively defeated such good two-year-olds as Erbet, Footpad, Wise Mason and Homecrest. He made good in what proved to be his last start when on August 28 he annexed the Frivolity Stakes, spreadeagling his opponents and winning pulled up. Dick Roller failed to keep his engagements in the Great Eastern and Flatbush Stakes on account of having contracted a skin disease. It was the intention of Mr. Respess to give the colt a good rest this winter and he was confident that as a three-year-old Dick Roller would bring more fame to the Dick Welles family. During his short but successful career he earned for his owner the sum of $7,245. His record is as follows:

Dick Roller, b. c, 2, by Dick Welles—Lady Roller.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

H. G. Bedwell's Judge Nelson appears to be going sore in his work and seems to have developed into a sulker as well.

Fred Burlew, the American trainer now residing in France, scored his first win in that country last Sunday when he sent Maurienne to the post at Longchamps.

J. Burttschell lost his five-year-old gelding, Cock Sure, when D. W. Frazier bid him up and secured him for $525 in a selling race the other day at Dallas, the first run-up of the meeting.

Coat of Arms and My Mariutch, which earlier in the season raced under the colors of J. L. McGinnis, were shipped Sunday by the Ward line to Trinidad, where Dr. De Lisser intends to race them this winter.

E. J. Ramsey's Speaker Fontana, which spent the summer turned out at Hayward, is getting a quick prep for the cheaper sort of sprints at Oakland. This horse has a world of early speed but is faint hearted.

Miss Emma Quick, who enjoys the unique distinction of being the only female trainer of thoroughbreds in the country, has returned to her home in Oakland from a successful campaign with her gray sprinter, Jack Richelieu, at "bush" meetings.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

Joe K., Cincinnati, O. See reply to John W.

J. K., Chicago. Leonard was out to show October 22.

T. O., St. Louis, Mo. and others. Leonard was out to show October 19.

A. B., St. Louis, Mo. Walsh had one mount, Black Hawk, October 14.

F. E., Joliet, Ill. Reticent was 2 to 1 to show in the sixth race at Dallas October 22.

J. W. K., Chicago. Night Mist closed at even money straight, 1 to 2 place, show, out, October 13.

John W. and others, Chicago. Ida D. closed at 3 to 1, 6 to 5 and 2 to 5 in her race of October 22 at Dallas.

W. C. D., San Francisco, Cal. Probably as good as any in that line, but close study on your own part is better than any system.

W. L. M., Chicago. The Slicker was out to show in the fifth race at Dallas, October 24. Meadow and Otilo, coupled, 1 to 2 to show same date.

Tom K., St. Louis, Mo. Went to post at 4:31, at post 1 minute in fourth race, Friday, October 16. Went to post at 3:09, at post 4 minutes first race, Saturday, October 17.

Winner—Ch. g, by Jonah White—Marguerite II. (trained by W. Keating).

Went to post at 2:13. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Edgely broke fast from the inside and dashed into a commanding lead before they had gone a furlong, was then rated along in front under slight restraint, but was doing his best at the end. Stargowan began slowly, but improved his position on the turn out of the backstretch and outgamed Trey of Spades in the final drive. The latter was a game and forward contender all the way. Belle of the Bay closed a big gap in the last quarter. The Clown made up ground. The winner was entered for $1,200; no bid.

Scratched—(76095)Billie Hibbs, 110.

77904 SECOND RACE—1 Mile and 40 Yards. (58390—1:44⅗—2—99.) $500 added. 3-year-olds. Allowances. Net value to winner $425.

Winner—B. g, by Handsel—Evaline (trained by J. W. Pangle).

Went to post at 2:37. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Gridiron went to the front with a rush and, making the pace under slight restraint, held Live Wire safe at all stages of the race. Live Wire moved up on the far turn and, responding to punishment gamely, easily disposed of the others. Blacksheep was much used in the early running in following the leader and tired badly in the stretch. Duke of Roanoke ran poorly.

Winner—B. c, by St. Gatien—Jude (trained by D. Woodford).
Went to post at 3:02. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Michael Beck moved up with a rush on the backstretch, caught and passed the leaders quickly, opened a big lead on the far turn and kept drawing away to the end. Ballet Girl, a rapid breaker, showed in front for the first furlong and was unable to keep pace with the winner, but was easily best of the others. Red Doe, green at the post, broke well, but immediately dropped far back, then closed up steadily in the last half and may improve. Greenhow went fairly well. Miss Cardigan is evidently not a good mud runner.

Winner—Ch. g, by St. Florian—Ever (trained by M. Daly).
Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same; third driving. Prince of Pilsen ran under restraint until in the last turn of the field, moved up with a rush after taking the fifteenth jump and drew away into an easy lead at the end. Pontotoc ran well on the flat, but blundered at the ninth and fifteenth jumps and almost unseating his rider at the latter obstacle. Woodside ran close up with the leaders until in the last turn of the field, where he quit. Garterman fell at the fourth jump and McKinney was forced to pull Grandpa up to keep from jumping on him. Bilberry refused at the fifteenth jump when he was a forward contender.

Time, 23⅘, 48⅘, 1:17⅘.
Winner—Br. g, by Ben Brush—Noonday (trained by N. Byer).
Went to post at 3:53. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Besom moved up with a game challenge on the far turn and forced a very fast pace, then outgamed Sal Volatile in the stretch drive and, although tiring at the end, managed to last long enough to stall off Giles' rush. Giles, a distant trailer for the first three furlongs, finished with a great stretch rush after being taken to the outside where the footing was firmest. Sal Volatile, off fast, set a fast pace for the first half and tired badly at the end. Botanist ran a poor race over a track favorable to him. The Wrestler finished close up. Superstition was unable to extend himself in the going. The winner was entered for $2,500; no bid.

Winner—Br. g, by Knight of the Thistle—Octa Reed (trained by F. A. Herold).
Went to post at 4:17. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second and third driving. Poquessing, under slight restraint, followed the leader until straightened out in the homestretch, where he moved up gamely and, after disposing of Aster d'Or, had enough left to stall off Ivanhoe's rush. The latter began slowly and was badly outrun early, but finished fast and was gaining on the winner at the end. Aster d'Or was much used in pacemaking for the first seven furlongs and tired under punishment in the last eighth. Rio Grande bled and was eased up. Clements finished well. Druid and Lally showed speed, but failed to stay. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—Br. g, by Hamburg—Xela (trained by T. F. Coles).
Went to post at 4:44. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Xebec began slowly and was outrun to the stretch turn, where he came through on the inside and, finishing with a great burst of speed, just got up. Teddington ran a good race, was crowded back at the start, but closed a big gap and finished with a rush. Pescatore, well up all the way, outgamed Gunshot in the final drive. The latter showed speed, but lost ground when entering the homestretch, where she was taken wide. Ed Shuster showed early speed. Babble set the pace to the stretch and quit.

Winner—B. g, by Griffon—Pillowdex (trained by F. D. Weir).
Went to post at 2:12. At post 2 minutes. Start straggling. Won handily; second and third driving. Strike Out drew out in the first stride with dazzling speed and spreadeagled the others. Erbet, well up from the start, made a game stretch effort under a weak finish. Sententious showed superior speed in nearest pursuit to the stretch and tired unexpectedly. Lasata, outrun early, finished well. Font showed brief early speed. Garland, never dangerous, lacked speed unexpectedly. The winner was entered for $1,500; no bid.

Went to post at 2:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Sanguine, suddenly improved, was forwardly placed from the start and wore the leader down in a hard stretch drive. Animus outbroke the others and set the pace under pressure for seven furlongs and succumbed finally, but was a game second. Okenite, away slowly, lost ground early and closed a big gap in the last half into a fast going, but belated, third. Imitator, pulling up from interference on the first turn, made up ground at the end under a bad ride. Golconda, well up for the first half, dropped out in the stretch. Milford, away badly, trailed for six furlongs, then gained rapidly. Faust showed superior speed for six furlongs and quit badly. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Time, 13, 25⅘, 37, 48⅘, 1:01⅘.
Winner—B. f, by Octagon—Merry Token (trained by A. Simons).
Went to post at 3:01. At post 4 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Merry Gift, from a straggling start, drew out quickly and won all the way under an alert and vigorous ride. May River, from a flatfooted inside start, was shuffled to the rear and outpaced, but closed an immense gap in the last half. Hoffman ran in forward pursuit throughout and was a game third. Otogo, shuffled back at the start, closed up steadily under poor riding. Cowen ran prominently to midway of the stretch and quit. The Vicar closed an early gap and loomed up menacingly on the stretch turn, but quit at the end. Roger de Coverley showed superior early speed. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
Scratched—77490 Opal, 97; Huda, 95; Miss C. Divota, 97.
Overweights—Cowen, 3 pounds; The Vicar, 4; Ark, 4.

Time, 12⅘, 24⅘, 36⅘, 48⅘, 1:13⅘.
Winner—Ch. c, by Oddfellow—Ferrol (trained by M. M. Allen).
Went to post at 3:24. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Fountainblue, from a flatfooted inside start, was outpaced in the early running, but closed up rapidly in the last half and drew out with a rush. Cressina, from a dying start, set the pace to the last couple of strides before she succumbed in a cracking effort. Question Mark, from a slow inside start, journeyed through the deep inside going and closed steadily under pressure from the start into a game third. Notasulga was in forward contention in the inside bad going throughout. Queen Marguerite ran well. Arondack, badly outpaced and seemingly anchored in the early running, closed a gap in the last quarter.

Winner—B. g, by Giganteum—Miss Doone (trained by E. Regan).
Went to post at 3:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Ardri quickly established a big early lead and, after pulling up on the stretch turn, came on again on his own courage and got up in the last stride. Raquel, from a slow start, was excessively urged in the middle running and drew out into a clear lead and, after appearing the winner midway of the stretch, tired suddenly. Norbitt ran in forward and persistent pursuit throughout. Winning Star ran well up to the stretch. Malaga was gaining slowly in the last quarter. Tivoli ran forwardly for six furlongs. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
Overweights—Frances Ray, 1 pound.

Winner—Br. c, by Sempronius—Ambulance (trained by J. McLaughlin).
Went to post at 4:13. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second and third driving. Waponoca, after being slightly outpaced in the early running, challenged in a twinkling on the stretch turn and drew out decisively in the stretch. Sententious ran in forward and persistent pursuit throughout and was a game second. Bird of Flight II., from an inside slow start, was messed about and pulling up in the first half, then made a belated stretch challenge. Eustacian set the early pace from a lucky start and quit badly in the last sixteenth. Dandy Dixon trailed to the stretch and finished fast. Uncle Jim ran a good half and quit badly.

Winner—B. c, by Loyalist—Amerigo (trained by J. Walters).
Went to post at 2:01. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Desperado, away fast, set the early pace and, after relinquishing it, followed Be Brief closely and, standing a hard drive through the last furlong, got up in the last few strides. Be Brief ran a good race and was a close and game contender all the way. Mique O'Brien, away in a tangle, closed a big gap, was going fast at the end and would have won in a few more strides. Killington ran green, but showed speed and is promising. Greenbridge tired near the end. Gold Front was prominent for a half.
Scratched—77799 Rockcastle, 109.

The figures under "Rec." in above entries show the best time made by the horse at the distance, with weight carried, since January 1, 1906. This time is not necessarily made by a winner. It may be the estimated time of a losing performance.

LATEST PERFORMANCES OF HORSES ENTERED TODAY.

The small figure under "Str." shows the distance the horse was ahead of that next in the race. The small figure under "Fin."—unless the horse won—shows the number of lengths the horse was behind the winner.

HORSES THAT HAVE DIED THIS YEAR.

The death list of 1908 to October 1 does not include the names of many racers of recent years that were credited with remarkable racing prowess, the best having been Oran, Old England, Ben Fleet, Burt G. Lewis, Ella O'Neill, Lady Vera, Lancastrian, Master Lester, Penarris and R. C. Rann. But from the breeding farms a heavy toll was taken of great stars of long ago, including such grand race mares as Endurance by Right, Ida Pickwick, La Sylphide, Quiver and Sallie McClelland. Many other names will appeal to readers familiarly, the list to the date named being as follows:

PHIL CHINN'S BIG STRING OF RACERS.

P. T. Chinn will have one of the largest stables racing on the coast next winter. Chinn's consignment will make up four carloads and will be sent in three divisions. One will leave from Hamilton, Ont., one from Lexington, Ky., and the other from Harrodsburg, Ky. To properly conduct such a large establishment, the Kentucky horseman will have three trainers, W. H. Spence handling those racing at Oakland, Howard Dern looking after the Santa Anita division, while Luther Dickerson will have charge of the yearlings that are to be quartered at Ascot Park. Mr. Chinn has the first call on D. McCarthy, the Canadian boy, who has made such a good record riding for H. B. Duryea, and holds the contract on the promising lightweight jockey, Upton, while at the same time he will have second call on the services of V. Powers. Some good performers will be seen in the Chinn colors next winter, including Pretension, John Carroll, Astronomer, Go Between, Chalfonte, Glenecho, General Haley, Tammany Hall, Little Boy Blue and Ingham in the older division. Among the two-year-olds are such well-known youngsters as Yankee Tourist, J. H. Reed, Joe Gaitens, J. W. Fyre, Madrileno, Uncle Walter and Hamper, while Chick Ortwein, Seives, Donald McDonald, Piute, Des Cognets, Charlie Rothschild and Louis Struber will be heard from later. Twenty-nine unnamed yearlings, two by the famous Ort Wells, conclude what may prove a formidable collection of racers. The yearlings are:

CAREER OF SPEEDY PETER STERLING.

Ed Trotter fears that he may be obliged to turn out his good horse, Peter Sterling, for an extended period before he will be himself again. The skin disease with which he was affected last winter is still bothering the horse, and Trotter is going along very cautiously with him. Peter Sterling has proved to be a useful animal during the four years of his turf career. As a two-year-old, in 1905, he started in twenty races, was first in six, second in eight and third in three and but three times unplaced, his earnings amounting to $2,445. Peter Sterling showed good form as a three-year-old, with six wins, two seconds and four thirds to his credit, being unplaced only once in thirteen starts, winning $6,330. Two performances of Peter Sterling as a three-year-old are worthy of mention, one that of picking up 127 pounds and running a mile in 1:40⅗, pulling up to a canter, the other, running a mile and a sixteenth, with 107 pounds up, in 1:45⅗. In 1907 he started in twenty-nine races, showed eight times in front, was second in eleven, third in four and ran unplaced in six. This year he has only started in nine races, finishing second in one, third in another and running outside the money in the other seven. His last start was in August at Seattle, which was probably the last one this year, unless unexpected improvement is noted in the horse's condition. His complete record on the turf is as follows:

Peter Sterling, ch. h. 5, by Lord Esterling—Lucrece.

Year.	Age.	Sts.	1st.	2d.	3d.	Unp.	Amt.
1905	2	20	6	8	3	3	$ 2,445
1906	3	13	6	2	4	1	6,330
1907	4	29	8	11	4	6	2,295
1908	5	9	0	1	1	7	200
Totals (4)		71	20	22	12	17	$11,270
